7. Millennium Developmental Goals

- In Septembember 2000, leaders from 189 Countries met at the Millennium Summit in New York to adopt the United Nation Millennium Declaration.
- The leaders made specific commitements in Seven areas like. ① Peace. security and disarmament ② Development and poverty eradication ③ Protecting common environment. ④ democracy ⑤ Strengthening the United nat
⑥ Meeting the special needs of africa.
⑦ Protecting the Vulnaerable.
- The Road Map were established, so that the goals and the targets to be reached by the year 2015. in each seven areas.

MDG 8 Goals in 7 areas

① Eradicate Extreme Poverty and Hunger
② Achieve Universal Primary Education.
③ Promote Gender equality and Women Empowering.
④ Reduce child mortality.
⑤ Improve maternal health.
⑥ Combat HIV/AIDS. malaria and other dises
⑦ Ensure environmental sustainability.
⑧ Develope Global partnership for the development.

www.drarunsubramaniyan.com

- Millineum Development Goals placed Health at the heart of development, three of the 8 goals are directly related to health, and others are indirectly related to health.
- 3 out of 8 goals, 8 of the 18 targets - 18 out of 48 indicators are health related.
- Indication like (Infant mortality rate, Under 1 year) Maternal mortality etc) were used.
- Progress towards the MDGs has, on the whole, been remarkable.

www.drarunsubramaniyan.com

Sustainable Development Goals

- After MDG got over in 2015, September, the United Nation General assembly adopted the new development agenda: "Transforming our world: the 2030 agenda for sustainable development
- It has 17 Sustainable Development Goals which has to be achieved by 2030,
- It integrates all three dimensions of sustainable development (Economy, Social, and environmental) are used the theme of people, plant, prosperity, peace and partnerships.
- It recognized that eradicating poverty and inequality. creating economic growth and preserving the planet are interlinked to one another and also to Population health.
- The Main Goal was: "Ensure Healthy lives and promote well being for all at all ages"
"leaving no one behind"
- It has 13 targets.

www.drarunsubramaniyan.com