

Name - Clinical Repertory.

Author - Oscar E. Boenicke

Year - 1927

Remedies - 1409 (1414)

Grades - 2 (Italics, Roman)

Parts - ① MM of William Boenicke.

② Repertory by Oscar E. Boenicke.

Introduction.

→ It is attached to Homoeopathic MM by William Boenicke, since both names are similar it creates great confusion among people.

→ The repertory part was mainly based on Boenicke materia medica.

Plan and Construction

Hahnemann's Schema is followed.

24 chapters

- Arranged alphabetically.

↳ Every rubric is presented in following order (Example - Headache)

① Cause

② Type

③ Location

④ Character of pain

⑤ Concomitants

⑥ Modalities Aggravation - amelioration

Important features

- * He says 1414 in index, but only 1409, but 5 medicines appear twice because of dual names. Eg Cinnicifraga & Actea racemosa.
- * Clinical terms/technical are used as sub.
- * Remedies arranged alphabetically.
- * Two typography for intensity.
- * Index to repository is present.